

Highlands Food Growing Initiatives

The following were awarded Community Climate Asset Fund (CCAF) grants in 2021 for food growing projects in the Highlands and may therefore be options to link with community composting initiatives:

- Abriachan Forest Trust. For food growing equipment £9,991.64.
- Applecross Community Company. For food growing equipment. £1,184.50.
- Arisaig Community Trust. For food growing equipment and electric bikes. £8,874.89.
- Cradlehall Primary School. For food growing equipment. £9,627.83.
- Edinbane Primary School. For food growing equipment. £3,000.00.
- Gomde Scotland. For community building energy efficiency improvements and food growing equipment. £9,771.05.
- Helmsdale and District Development Trust. For a Polycrub to help the community of Helmsdale to reduce local carbon emissions by enabling the growing of local fruit and vegetables to reduce food miles. £10,758.60
- Kilchoan Primary School and Nursery. For food growing equipment. £7,182.86.
- Kinlochbervie Primary School. For food growing equipment. £2,485.02.
- Lundavra Primary School. For food growing equipment. £6,074.00.
- Saltburn and Westwood Community Council. For an electric cargo bike and food growing equipment. £9,152.48.
- Stramash Outdoor Nursery. For food growing equipment. £8,041.91.